FACTS

WHAT DOES RANDOLPH-BROOKS FEDERAL CREDIT UNION (RBFCU) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some, but not all, sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the products or services you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

How?
All financial companies need to share members’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members’ personal information; the reasons RBFCU chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information | Does RBFCU share? | Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes — such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus | Yes | No
For our marketing purposes — to offer our products and services to you | Yes | Yes*
For joint marketing with other financial companies | Yes | Yes
For our affiliates’ everyday business purposes — information about your transactions and experiences | Yes | No
For our affiliates’ everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness | Yes | Yes
For our affiliates to market to you | Yes | Yes
For nonaffiliates to market to you | Yes | Yes

To limit our sharing
- Call 1-800-580-3300 (toll-free) and speak to a Member Service Representative.
- Visit a branch location and speak to a Member Service Representative.

Please note:
If you are a new member, we can begin sharing your information 30 days from the date we sent this notice. When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
However, you can contact us at any time to limit our sharing.

*Members cannot opt-out of receiving letters or other credit union communications that carry regulatory notices.

| How does RBFCU collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- Open an account or deposit money
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your debit or credit card
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates and other companies. |
| Why can't I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit:
- Sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. |
| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choices only affect your sharing, not your joint owners. |
